

Message from the International Links Committee

Hello, this is the International Links Committee. This is a club which makes an effort joining students together from all over the world, by using letters, trips and other examples of simple communication. It's all about connections.

Niamh, Olivia and Hannah- Y9 students